

Co-operation Ireland and partners invite you to

A training and dissemination event for the Our Human Rights in Action project and resource

- ✓ Sub-cover available
- ✓ Travel expenses covered

On the day...

- ✓ Complimentary copy of Our Human Rights in Action to take back to school
- ✓ Overview of resource (hear from teachers who have already put it into practice)
- ✓ Opportunity for discussion and networking during the session and over lunch
- ✓ Information about complementary projects and opportunities for schools and young people

This event is open to all interested parties across all board areas but may particularly interest teachers of Local & Global Citizenship, RE and CRED coordinators.

Thursday 19 March, 10am-1pm

Stranmillis College

(parking available)

FYI - The OHRA resource can be used as

- a stand-alone module to enable you to put Human Rights learning into action
- a handbook to facilitate collaborative Human Rights learning and action with a partner school

In addition, all learning and activities contained in the resource promote the development of speaking and listening skills
